

Summary

During July, the share price of The Emerging World Fund (EWF) rose 5.43%, net of fees, whilst its benchmark index, the dollar-adjusted S&P Emerging Frontier Super Composite Net Total Return Broad Market Index (S&P Super BMI), rose 6.15%. Additionally, and for comparative purposes only, the MSCI Emerging Markets Net Total Return Index (MSCI EM Index) rose 6.23% over the period. The NAV performances of the Fund's underlying holdings and country allocation versus the benchmark index were unfavourable, whilst discount movements were favourable. Since its inception in September 1998, the Fund has outperformed its benchmark index on an annualised basis by 0.69 of a percentage point and outperformed the MSCI EM Index on an annualised basis by 1.2 percentage points, net of fees. Please note attribution in the table below is shown gross of fees, whilst performance reported in the narrative above and chart below is net of fees.

EWF Performance* Compared to the S&P Super Composite Net Total Return BMI and MSCI EM Index (US$) Since Inception (Rebased from inception, where 15th September 1998 = 100)

*Performance figures are net returns. Historical figures are based on an investment management fee of 1% per annum; as of 7 February 2022, the IM Fee is 0.95% per annum.

The benchmark was changed from the S&P Emerging BMI Plus on January 1, 2009 to better reflect the investment strategy of the Fund. The S&P Emerging BMI Plus was the successor index to the S&P/IFC Global Composite Index, the benchmark for the Fund prior to September 1, 2008, which has been discontinued. Benchmark changes have not been applied retroactively and therefore historical benchmark performance is a blend of the BMI and IFC indices. The MSCI Emerging Markets Net Total Return Index (MSCI EM Index) is shown for comparative purposes. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

Investment Commentary

Economic Overview* (Macroeconomics)

July saw strong performance from emerging markets (EM) equities, with nearly all countries seeing positive total returns and the MSCI EM Net TR Index outperforming the developed market (DM) equivalent (MSCI World Net TR Index) by 2.9 percentage points. All EM regions saw positive returns and Egypt was the only country to record a negative return. This performance was driven by positive news from China, where there was a normalisation in the regulation of technology companies and hopes that the Politburo meeting might produce a stimulus beneficial to real estate stocks and equities more widely. Below anticipated Consumer Price Index (CPI) data in the US also raised expectations that the Federal Reserve is approaching peak policy rates. The dollar weakened slightly through the month (DXY -1% in July) providing an additional tailwind for EM. The consumer discretionary and materials sectors were the top EM sectors, returning 13.9% and 9% respectively. In contrast, information technology, consumer staples and utilities gained 1.6%, 3.6%, and 3.9% respectively, in July. The price of Brent crude oil rose by 14.2%, the GSCI Commodity Index gained 9.8%, and gold prices rose by 2.4% in US dollar terms.

The MSCI Turkey Index rose by 19.3% in US dollar terms, despite the 3.4% depreciation in the lira against the dollar, making it the best performing EM country. The central bank hiked the policy rate by 250 basis points (bps), from 15% to 17.5%, which was still 100 bps less than the markets expected. They also said they would implement quantitative and credit tightening with the rate hikes. In addition, President Erdogan replaced three central bank deputy governors with more orthodox economists, a development that markets took positively.

Real estate stocks in China rallied due to speculation over policy loosening for Tier 1 cities and building optimism around other policy stimuli at the Politburo meeting. Overall, the MSCI China Index rose by 10.8% in US dollar terms in July. At the end of the month, the Manufacturing Purchasing Manager's Index (PMI) came in above expectations at 49.3 but still below the expansionary 50 mark adding to evidence of a faltering recovery. With the government committed to their growth target, there is scope for further stimulus to be announced.

Taiwan's equity market was one of the weakest performers in July, with the MSCI Taiwan Index gaining 0.8% in US dollar terms. The semiconductor sector, which dominates the index (information technology has a 71.8% weight), showed further signs of weakness, with the manufacturing PMI remaining in contractionary territory in the July reading. As such, forward earnings estimates were reduced over the month.

Portfolio Commentary* (Investment Management)

In July, emerging markets generalist exposure was adjusted as we purchased shares of Abrdn Emerging Markets Equity Income Fund Inc, Fidelity Emerging Markets, and Voya Emerging Markets High Income Dividend Equity Fund at discounts between 14% and 15.5%, whilst shares of Utilico Emerging Markets Trust were sold at an average discount of 14% following a period of strong relative NAV performance.

In Asia, regional exposure was adjusted as shares of Abrdn Asia Focus, Aberdeen New Dawn Investment Trust, and Voya Asia Pacific High Dividend Equity Income Fund were purchased at average discounts of 16.5%, 11%, and 14%, respectively, whilst shares of Invesco Asia Trust were sold at an average discount of 8.5%. Chinese exposure was increased as shares of Fidelity China Special Situations were purchased at a discount of 11%. South Korean exposure was gained as we purchased shares of LG Corp.

In Latin America, Mexican exposure was increased as shares of Mexico Fund Inc were purchased at an average discount of 21.5%.

South African exposure was reduced as shares of Remgro were sold at an average discount of 37%.

Fund Objective & Background

The objective of The Emerging World Fund (EWF) is to invest for capital growth in a portfolio of closed-end funds whose investment policy is directed mainly towards emerging markets. This approach allows great flexibility in asset allocation, a wider diversification of investments, participation in the performances of high quality fund managers and potentially enhanced performance when the discounts to net asset value at which closed-end funds tend to trade narrows. EWF is a sub-fund of The World Markets Umbrella Fund plc. ◆

Portfolio Data

Fund Size	US$149.2m
Number of Shares in Issue	1,520,274.616
Number of Portfolio Holdings	47
Size Weighted Portfolio Discount of closed-end funds	17.44%*
Size Weighted Average Life of Portfolio	1.66 years

Excluding 49.99% of the portfolio with unlimited life.

*Size Weighted Portfolio Discount represents the see-through discount of the underlying closed-end funds. It is calculated by multiplying the percentage position sizes of the underlying closed-end funds by their respective discounts. These calculations are then added together to determine the size weighted portfolio discount for the portfolio. The size weighted portfolio discount is a measure of value within the portfolio, with a higher value representing wider discounts, and accordingly more value within the portfolio.

Some of the closed-end funds have either fixed maturities or continuation votes that allow shareholders to vote on a restructuring of the underlying closed-end fund. The size weighted portfolio life is calculated by taking the percentage position sizes of the relevant holdings on the portfolio and multiplying them by their respective time periods remaining to the corporate event. These calculations are then added together to determine the minimum size weighted portfolio life for the portfolio. A lower size weighted portfolio life is beneficial for the portfolio as it may equate to potentially more corporate activity in the near term.

Country Allocation (-0.09%)

(Relative performance is in US dollar terms and references the country's S&P Super BMI component or an appropriate market index versus the S&P Super BMI composite index)

Country allocation was slightly negative, with underperformance resulting from the Fund's underweight position to China (which detracted 12 basis points from performance) as its index outperformed the composite index. Exposure to Hong Kong (-9 bps) also contributed underperformance as its index underperformed.

However, the Fund's overweight position to Vietnam (+19 bps) contributed outperformance as its index outperformed.

Portfolio Holding NAV (-1.22%)

(Performances are quoted in US dollar terms against their respective S&P Super BMI component, or for out-of-benchmark exposure, against a comparable country or regional index)

NAV performances were negative as the NAVs of JPMorgan Indian Investment Trust (-16 bps), LG Corp (-16 bps), and Fidelity Emerging Markets (-12 bps) underperformed their indices by 2.9, 8.6, and 3.3 percentage points, respectively. The NAV of JPMorgan Indian Investment Trust underperformed due to stock selection in the industrials and health care sectors, with stock detractors including overweight positions to WNS Holdings and Metropolis Healthcare. LG Corp's NAV underperformed as main subsidiaries declined after 2Q23 earnings missed estimates. Fidelity Emerging Markets' NAV underperformance was predominantly driven by negative stock selection in India, Brazil and China, as well as an underweight position to the latter.

Some outperformance stemmed from Taiwan Fund Inc (+15 bps) as its NAV outperformed its index by 2.6 percentage points due to stock selection within the information technology sector. Stock contributors included overweight positions to Asia Vital Components and Quanta Computer Inc.

Discount Movements (+0.67%)

(Performances are quoted in US dollar terms unless specified otherwise)

Discount movements were positive as the discounts of Taiwan Fund Inc (+12 bps), Remgro (+12 bps), and VinaCapital Vietnam Opportunity Fund (+11 bps) narrowed by 1.7, 4.6, and 3.9 percentage points, respectively. Taiwan Fund Inc's discount narrowed as the company recommenced its buyback program. The discount of Remgro narrowed in anticipation of potential corporate activity.

Conversely, Asia Dragon Trust (-21 bps) contributed underperformance as its discount widened by 4.5 percentage points as investors reduced exposure to EM Asia.

Risk Profile

- There is no capital guarantee or protection on the value of the Fund. Investors can lose all capital invested in the Fund.
- Some emerging markets in which the Fund invests may have less developed political, economic and legal systems. Such markets may carry a higher than average risk to investment and may lead to large fluctuations in the value of the Fund.
- The Investment Manager does not engage in currency hedging. Changes in currency exchange rates may therefore adversely affect the value of your investment.
- During difficult market conditions, some of the Fund's assets may become difficult to accurately value or to sell at a desired price.
- The Fund may invest in warrants. Warrants carry a degree of risk significantly higher than the underlying company shares due to their leveraged nature and therefore have higher volatility.

Past performance is not a guide to future performance. The value of investments and any income is not guaranteed and can go down as well as up and may be affected by exchange rate fluctuations. This means that an investor may not get back the amount invested. Index returns assume reinvestment of dividends and capital gains and unlike fund returns do not reflect fees or expenses. The indices are unmanaged and cannot be invested directly. All information expressed in USD. All data: Bloomberg, BNY Mellon, CLIM, S&P, MSCI.
